Midnight Madness

Current Dictionary entry

A fun, competitive event wherein singles frame games of four frames are played in an elimination tournament format. If a player ends any frame with a score of 19 they are immediately declared the game winner. Otherwise, the player with the highest score at the end of the four frames wins the game. Originated in Ohio at the Lakeside Shuffleboard Club in 1996, now played at Lakeside as one of three games for their Moonlight Madness.
