

8. After the final game, you will post the results, then have the Referee approve it, finally having the winners sign it, along with the Referee, and yourself.

9. If you desire to be released from scorekeeping in the next game on your court, contact the head scorekeeper and see that a replacement has been provided before you depart. Never leave your court unmanned.

A SERIOUS MESSAGE

from W. Edward Bush, President, Central District

"The idea which I present isn't new, nor is it original. The thought is based on solving the financial difficulties of both our State and the National Shuffleboard Organizations.

"When an Association such as ours doesn't have sufficient income to meet all its legitimate expenses, it is imperative that it look for a new source of finding same.

"Having had the honor of acquiring the greatest number of ads for our Preview over the last four years, the writer can tell you of the many discouragements and difficulties involved when soliciting ads, not to mention my having travelled over 1,100 miles this year alone, involving valuable time and considerable expense.

"It is time for the Florida Shuffleboard Association to assume a more mature attitude toward being self-sufficient, paying all the costs of the State Tournaments, as well as helping the National Association meet its legitimate expenses.

"Raising the annual dues of each club isn't the answer, for it would drive many of the very small clubs
