

PUCKS & CUES and SUNSET VIEWS

What do I want in the sunset of life?

Just Peaceful simplicity and an understanding wife.

Gone are the days of power and big bucks;

I'll trade them both for 2 hours with the pucks.

I still watch TV and check on the news,

To compare my opinions with other peoples views.

After all, being a "spectator" is kind of fun,

Since you can't have it all . . .

When it's all said and done!
